

Summer Holiday Photography Tasks

Task 1: DOCUMENT A JOURNEY

TASK 1: A JOURNEY

"To me, photography is an art of observation. Its about finding something interesting in an ordinary place...I've found it has little to do with the things you see and everything to do with the way you see them."

Elliot Erwitt

The summer is made up of movement and transition, as photographers you are in a position to see the world around you and capture reality as it unfolds. In this task you are to document a journey that you will make over the summer this could range from an overseas holiday a trip to a festival or a simple foray around the capital. Use your camera as a window to the world and capture the journey as it unfolds before you.

Task 2: Visit an exhibition. We suggest....

Sergey Ponomarev: A Lens On Syria
The Imperial War Museum

Tom Hunter
Museum of childhood

Neil Libbert's
Michael Hoppen

Gregory Crewdson
The Photographers gallery

Be prepared to make notes whilst in the exhibition however, we prefer you not to buy a sketchbook for the course yet. (Use a small book or loose paper)
