Welcome to Wollstonecraft House

I'm Miss Turner and I'm the Head of Wollstonecraft House. I also teach Drama in the school.

Our house is named after Mary Wollstonecraft (7 April 1759 – 10 September 1797) who was an English writer, philosopher, and advocate of women's rights. She is regarded as one of the founding feminist philosophers, and feminists often cite both her life and work as important influences. You can read more about her here

At Wollstonecraft House we will promote diversity and believe in equality for all: which I think Mary Wollstonecraft would have approve of. Our student ambassadors will organise inclusive events that promote our house values to raise money for charity. Our team of student ambassadors from Years 7-11 meet every Wednesday in form time to plan and organise our charity work. Wollstonecraft students vote to choose the charities that they want to support each year.

There will be lots of different activities and events for everyone to take part in like bake sales, fun runs and fashion shows to name a few.   There will also be lots of interhouse events for students to get involved in including the Drama Interhouse Festival; students devise their own plays to perform at the annual Open Day and try to win the Drama Cup.
